Women's Party in a Fuss Before It Gets Started.

Equal Suffrage Association Denounces the Idea.

CAN'T MAKE IT PARTY ISSUE

Dr. Anna Shaw Declares Plan Is Not Feasible.

Must Court Support in Other Parties to Win.

Chicago, May 4.—Announcement has been made that the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage is contemplating the placing in the field this year of a woman candidate for president of the United States, to be nominated by the Woman's party, a new party which the society is planning to hold here June 7, 8 and 9.

The Equal Suffrage association, following the announcement yesterday, denounced the Woman's party convention and Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, ex-president of the association, at once mailed her resignation as a member of the Congressional union. Other prominent members expressed their views as adverse to the nomination of a woman candidate.

The members of the German-American Woman's Club voted yesterday not to take part in the suffrage parade which is to be held by the national association on June 7.

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw Against It. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, leader of the National American Woman Suffrage association, to the formation of a woman's party, announced today in a statement issued by the headquarters of the association.

"The minute we make a suffrage party," said Dr. Shaw, "we lose our friends in the party that is to be disciplined and we cannot afford to do that. It takes a two-thirds majority in congress to pass any federal amendment and no party in power has controlled that much power since 1869. Consequently, it is up to us to maintain a strictly non-partisan attitude."

N. Y. IRISH SHOOK

Execution of Rebel Leaders Arouses Ire of American Sympathizers.

New York, May 4.—The news that four of the Irish leaders of the rebellion had been executed today, aroused a sensation in Irish circles here today. Prominent Irish men in sympathy with the rebellion declared they were shocked by the action which had been taken. Robert E. Ford, editor of the Irish World, said:

"The shooting of Pearce, provisional president of the Irish republic, and his associates will serve only to make the war between Ireland and England more bitter. The Irish revolution is being conducted according to the rules of civilized warfare. Pearce was a prisoner of war and should have been treated as such. It was a piece of base brutality and will do doubt cause reprisals by the Irish. Pearce, like Yashin, had been taken. Robert E. Ford, editor of the Irish World, said:

Raid England Coast.

London, May 4.—A new German air raid on the Kentish coast, the destruction of the Zeppelin L-20 off the coast of Norway had been reported here.

The raid on Kent took place Wednesday afternoon and was carried out by a single German aeroplane. An official statement issued by the war office says:

"A hostile aeroplane visited Deal at 8:10 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, coming from the direction of Ramsgate.

"Six bombs were dropped on the railway station. Several houses were damaged. One man was injured. This is the only casualty known.

The aeroplane escaped, flying above the clouds. Our air craft pursued it."

A supplementary statement issued by General Sir John French, commander-in-chief of the home forces, shows that the Zeppelin raid of Tuesday night was more extensive than at first reported. Nine persons, including three women, were killed and 29 were wounded. The statement says:

"The Zeppelin raid Tuesday night covered a considerable extent of the eastern coast.

"At least five or six airships actually crossed the shore but reports of reliable observers at various times of the night and at intervals of an hour distant at Rattray Head, Scotland, down to the north coast of Norfolk.

"The enemy made only two attempts to penetrate inland. About 100 bombs were dropped, scattered in many localities. The exact number is difficult to give, since a great number fell in uninhabited areas and others in the sea.

"Only in a single locality did the raiders cause casualties or effect much damage. In this case the bombs that fell amounted to 12 of explosive and four of incendiary character. As a result, 18 houses were damaged. The casualties totaled six men, including a soldier, and three women killed and 12 men, including three soldiers, and eight women injured. The remaining bombs occasioned two casualties. A soldier and a child were slightly injured and damage was effected to a storehouse and a few cottages, mostly broken glass.

"The raid only twice came within range of our anti-aircraft artillery and on both occasions retreated out of range without delay."

RECEIVER FOR HUSBAND

Hattie Bruce Leavitt Institutes Proceedings in Court.

Hattie Bruce Leavitt has instituted proceedings in the district court to have receiver appointed to manage the property of her husband, Harrison E. Leavitt. She states as a reason for the action that her husband inherited the business of the husband and is in a position to keep the property and that he has failed to pay the taxes and that the bulk of the property has been sold for taxes.

The property was inherited from Leavitt's mother and under the terms of her will she was to keep the property and to pay the taxes. She paid means that the property is to go to other heirs. It is alleged that an inheritance tax of $100 is still unpaid. Besides the husband and his wife, in the action are: Ora Leavitt, Leslie Leavitt, Helen S. Leavitt, Florence E. Leavitt, Albert L. Leavitt, Beulah May Leavitt, E. Leavitt, Pearl E. Leavitt, Tobener, George Tobener, the Wichita Perpetual Building & Loan association, and Frank G. Lagerstrom, administrator of the estate of Leavitt's mother.

Protests to Executions.

London, May 4.—The only protest voiced in parliament yesterday against the execution of the three leaders of the Irish revolt came from Laurence Ginnell, member of the north division, who is classed as a nationalist, but is actually an independent.

The three leaders, Patrick J. Dargatzis, Edward J. Connelley and John MacDonagh, were shot Wednesday morning after trial by court martial.

John Redmond, leader of the Irish parliamentary party, joined with Sir Edward Carson, leader of the Irish unionists in a plea for leniency to the three.

In the remarkable speech explaining his resignation as chief secretary of Ireland, Augustine Birrell, confessed that he had been deceived by the strength and seriousness of the Sinn Fein movement. Mr. Birrell paid a tribute to the Irish race and said he hoped good might come from the great events at Dublin.

Birrell Addresses Parliament.

"Irish soldiers," he said, "are still the best representatives of their country. Fighting as they are in all theaters of war."

Mr. Birrell admitted he had been urged by a great many persons who possibly knew Ireland and who were not Irish, to resign his office.

He said the duty of the government was to suppress the Sinn Fein movement wherever found and confiscate arms without delay.
